

NHS Wales Awards 2008

Open to all NHS employees in Wales and patient interest groups working in partnership with NHS organisations

- recognising achievement
- providing learning material to support development programmes
- stimulating and encouraging an evaluative approach to implementing better ideas in service delivery

To enter visit: www.nliah.wales.nhs.uk

NHS Wales 2008 Awards

In order to recognize achievement and good practice across NHS Wales Edwina Hart, AM MBE, Minister for Health and Social Services, has launched an Award scheme to celebrate the 60th Anniversary of the NHS.

You are invited to enter your story on line at www.nliah.wales.nhs.uk in one of the following 6 categories

- 1 Citizens at the centre of service design and delivery
- 2 Developing a flexible and sustainable workforce
- 3 Leading on service improvement
- 4 Working seamlessly across organisations
- 5 Promoting better health and avoiding disease
- 6 Improving patient safety

Chief Executives are required to endorse and support entries from their respective organisations.

Shortlisted entries will be visited by a panel of experts before the presentation of the Awards by Edwina Hart, AM MBE, Minister for Health and Social Services at a Ceremony on 15 May 2008, 10.30am - 2.30pm at Cardiff County Hall.

The winner in each category will receive a bursary of £500 to assist with their continuing professional development.

For further information contact: Lisa Brody 01443 233326 Lisa.brody@nliah.wales.nhs.uk or the NLIAH website: www.nliah.wales.nhs.uk

To submit a storyboard please visit the NLIAH website and complete the form to register with the online storyboard submission system. You will need to create a username and password - please make a note of these details. The closing date for submission of your story is 4 February 2008, no entries can be accepted after this date.

